

Committee Report 2020

ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

Report of the ESO Committees - Summary

Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

- Diana Aguiar de Sousa, Portugal (Chair)
- Inna Lutsenko, Kyrgystan
- Kateriine Orav, Estonia
- Johannes Kaesmacher, Switzerland
- Daniel Guisado Alonso, Spain
- Tom Moullaali, UK
- Barbara Casolla, France
- Giuseppe Reale, Italy
- Nicolas Martinez Majander, Finland
- Linxin Li, UK

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

Activities

- ESO blog

- Weekly posts, including:
 - ESJ comments (simultaneous publication in collaboration with the ESJ editorial office)
 - Interviews – “Ask the expert” (young and senior researcher)
 - Educational clinical cases
 - Short and informal reviews on narrow topics with practical interest
- Dissemination also through the official social media channels

- Career mentoring workshop at ESOC/ESO-WSO conference

- ESO-WSO Conference 2020
 - 37 abstracts submitted
 - Lectures on career development topics (Peter Sandercock and Karin Klijn)
 - Awards for the best candidates
 - place at the ESO Summer School and ESO Edinburgh Stroke Winter School

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

Activities

- Department to Department visiting programme
 - 35 applications
 - 10 grants (6 for middle-low income countries)
 - Reports published in the ESO blog
- ESJ peer-review training programme for young researchers
 - Pilot phase concluded. Open programme is in planning
- ESO-Edinburgh Stroke Research Winter School
 - Collaboration (Tom Moullaali)
- Paper of the month task-force
 - Collaboration (Nicolas Martinez-Majander)
- Collaboration in the ESO educational platform – eSTEP
 - Collaboration (Linxin Li and Barbara Casolla)

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

Meetings

- Several teleconferences