

Report of the ESO Committees Summary

Young Stroke Physicians & Researches Committee

- Diana Aguiar de Sousa (Chair), Portugal
- Barbara Casolla, France
- Johannes Kaesmacher, Switzerland
- Linxin Li, United Kingdom
- Inna Lutsenko, Kyrgyzstan
- Nicolas Martinez Majander, Finland
- Tom Moullaali, United Kingdom
- Giuseppe Reale, Italy
- Antje Schmidt, Germany
- Peter Vanacker, Belgium

Report of the Young Stroke Physicians & Researchers Committee (Chair: Diana Aguiar de Sousa)

Activities

• ESO blog

- 61 YSPR posts during 2019 (mean, 5 per month), including:
 - ESJ comments (simultaneous publication in collaboration with the ESJ editorial office)
 - Interviews – “Ask the expert” (young and senior researcher)
 - Educational clinical cases
 - Short and informal reviews on narrow topics with practical interestAll posted on ESO social media – Twitter and Facebook

• Career mentoring workshop at ESOC 2019 in Milan

–20 abstracts submitted

–4 young stroke researchers presented their projects with the mentors

–Two talks on career development topics (Prof. Rustam al-Shahi Salman and Prof. Stephanie Debette)

–2 awards for the best candidates – place at the ESO summer school and ESO-Edinburgh Stroke Winter School

Report of the Young Stroke Physicians & Researchers Committee (Chair: Diana Aguiar de Sousa)

Activities

(cont.)

- Department to Department visiting programme
 - 35 applications
 - 10 grants (6 for middle-low income countries)
 - reports published in the ESO blog
- ESO-Edinburgh Stroke Research Winter School
 - Involvement of the YSPR committee (Tom Moullaali)
- Paper of the month task-force
 - Participation of the YSPR committee
- ESJ peer-review training programme for young researchers
 - Proposed, under discussion

Report of the Young Stroke Physicians & Researchers Committee (Chair: Diana Aguiar de Sousa)

Meetings

- One face to face to face meeting (ESOC 2019, Milan)
- Several TCs