

Committee Report 2021

ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

Report of the ESO Committees - Summary

Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

- Diana Aguiar de Sousa, Portugal (Chair)
- Inna Lutsenko, Kyrgyzstan
- Kateriine Orav, Estonia
- Johannes Kaesmacher, Switzerland
- Aristeides Katsanos, Greece
- Tom Moullaali, UK
- Barbara Casolla, France
- Giuseppe Reale, Italy
- Ellis van Etten, Netherlands
- Peter Sporns, Germany

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

- ESO blog

- Weekly posts during 2021, including:
  - ESJ comments (simultaneous publication in collaboration with the ESJ editorial office)
  - Interviews – “Ask the expert” (young and senior researcher)
  - Educational clinical cases
  - Short and informal reviews on narrow topics with practical interest
- Wide attention in social media (ESO channels)
- Nomination of the new co-editor of the ESO blog

- Career mentoring workshop at ESOC 2021 (ESOC studio)

- 4 young stroke researchers presented their projects with the mentors
- Two talks on career development topics (Valeria Caso and Marcel Arnold)
- 2 awards for the best candidates – place at the ESO summer school and ESO-Edinburgh Stroke Winter School

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

- Department to Department visiting programme
  - 10 grants (6 for middle-low income countries)
  - Several reports already published in the ESO blog
  - New programme for 2022 is open
- ESO-Edinburgh Stroke Research Winter School
  - Involvement of the YSPR committee (Tom Moullaali)
- Collaboration with the ESO educational platform - eSTEP
  - YSPR members of the editorial board (Linxin Li and Barbara Casolla)
  - Participation in monthly educational webinars in collaboration with the Education committee

Report of the ESO Young Stroke Physicians and Researchers Committee

- Paper of the month task-force
  - Participation of the YSPR committee
- ESJ peer-review training programme for young researchers
  - Pilot phase concluded